PRODUCTION AND NATURAL RESOURCES.

1.—AGRICULTURE AND LAND TENURE.

NORTHERN PROVINCES :— Land tenure in the Northern Provinces of Nigeria and in the Cameroons under British Mandate is governed by the Land and Native Rights Ordinance (Chapter 85). Temporary Rights of Occupancy for periods not exceeding one year in respect of plots of land not exceeding four acres may be granted by Residents for purposes of testing trade possibilities. Rights of Occupancy in excess of this period or in respect of plots exceeding four acres may be granted in accordance with powers delegated by the Governor. The Local Authorities of Townships in the Northern Provinces may grant titles to natives to occupy land in Native Reservations in Townships under Regulations No. 8 of 1918 as amended by Regulations No. 13 of 1929.

The area of a building site is usually limited to half-an-acre in the Native Reservation of a Township, to two acres in other parts of a Township and to five acres elsewhere. No single right of occupancy granted to a non-native shall exceed 1,200 acres if granted for agricultural purposes or 12,500 acres if granted for grazing purposes.

The use to which a site is to be put and the amount which the applicant proposes to spend in improvements are taken into consideration when fixing the term of a Right of Occupancy.

Rents are subject to revision at such intervals as are specified in the grant.

Rights of Occupancy may not be alienated in any way without the consent of the Governor (whose powers are delegated).

SOUTHERN PROVINCES :—The Crown Lands Ordinance (Chapter 84) provides that, subject to the Regulations thereunder, the Governor may grant leases of Crown Land for any term, or in the case of a lease to a native of Nigeria for an indefinite term, and may grant licences for the temporary occupation of Crown Lands, but except with the consent of the Secretary of State first obtained the Governor may not sell any Crown Lands.

Crown Land is of limited extent. The greater part of it consists of lands acquired by the Government for public purposes as defined in the Public Lands Acquisition Ordinance (Chapter 88).

The Native Lands Acquisition Ordinance (Chapter 89) provides that no alien shall acquire any interest or right in or over any lands within the Southern Provinces of the Protectorate from a native except under an instrument which has received the approval in writing of the Governor, and that any instrument which has not received the approval of the Governor shall be null and void. It further provides that it shall be unlawful for an alien, or for any person claiming under an alien, to occupy any land belonging to a native except under an instrument approved by the Governor unless the right to occupy was acquired prior to the enactment of restrictive legislation or is authorised by any Ordinance.

* It is not possible to give the number of acres under cultivation or the total of any crops. The most important crops in the north are guinea-corn, various species of millets, cotton and ground-nuts, and in the south yams, maize, cocoa, cotton, cassava. The trees yielding such products as palm oil and kernels, shea nuts, etc., receive little or no cultivation. Except possibly in the case of cocoa the quantities exported give little indication of the total production.

But the gradually improving living conditions of the indigenous population are creating a demand for sawn timber in addition to the requirements of the Central Government and Native Administration Public Works who are replacing imported lumber by locally sawn timber. The more southerly provinces of Benue, Kabba and Ilorin are the areas where pit sawing can be described as an industry and Kabba Province with its rich timber forests and part of Benue Province, are capable of developing the young industry into an internal trade of some importance and if the introduction of sawmills envisaged should now materialise, these two provinces will be the real source of supply for the use of the Northern Province, the greater part of which is poor in timber species. Southern Provinces.—There were actually seventeen Licences in force at the close of the year, applications for twenty-three other licences had been approved. The remaining areas were either free or applications for licences over them were under consideration. There was a falling off in export fellings during part of the year due to depression in the world markets but there was some improvement towards the close of the year. No Timber Concessions were worked in the Cameroons during 1938.

Fishing is carried on in all the rivers, most of the fish caught being used for immediate local consumption, but small quantities are cured and traded with the towns distant from the river, where this form of food is highly prized. The curing is a very crude process, the fish not being dried, but placed in a grass fire which burns quickly and with great heat, converting the scales of the fish into a protective cinder.

State Area which has been geologically surveyed.

The Colony and parts of Abeokuta, Oyo, Ijebu, Sokoto, Kano, Bornu, Owerri and Onitsha Provinces, Borgu Division and an area of 7,000 square miles in Niger Province have been geologically surveyed. Geological investigations and well sinking for water supply are being carried out in Sokoto, Katsina, Bornu, Kano, Owerri, Benin, Calabar and Bauchi Provinces. Water supply has been improved by the construction of 1,209 producing wells.

2. The tinfields of Bauchi, Plateau, Zaria, Kano, Ilorin and Calabar have been geologically surveyed and strips of country along the eastern and western railways, respectively between Port Harcourt and Enugu and between Iddo and Okuku, the latter including the phosphate deposits of Abeokuta Province. Geological investigations of the Gold-field in Niger Province are still in progress.

3. The principal Nigerian Coalfield is situated mainly in Onitsha Province. A subordinate coal-field occurs in Owerri Province between Bende and the Cross River. Lignite exists around Asaba and Onitsha. Gold occurs in Zaria, Niger, Kano, Ilorin and Sokoto Provinces. Pisolitic iron ores occur around Lokoja and also in parts of Niger, Kano, and Bornu Provinces. Magnetic iron ore exists in Oyo, Katsina and Benue Provinces. Diamonds have been found in Sokoto and Zaria Provinces. Columbite, in relatively high quantities principally from Kano and Plateau Provinces, has been exported in the last three years. Lead, zinc ores with some silver occur in Ogoja, Benue and Adamawa Provinces.

7.—SUMMARY OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT.

The quantity of cocoa exported from Nigeria, including the Cameroons under the British Mandate, for the season October 1st 1937, to September 30th 1938, was 95,703 tons a decrease of 6,000 tons below the export of the previous season.

The proportions of the three grades in the total export were as follows :—

	1937-38	1936-37	1935-36
	%	%	%
Grade I	20.1	18	25
Grade II	78.9	81	74
Grade III	1	1	1

2. Owing partly to poor yields and the low price the quantity of Groundnuts exported in 1937-38 was 206,663 tons, a decrease of some 143,000 tons below the export of the previous season. The improvement effected by the Inspection Scheme has been most marked and the quality of Nigerian Groundnuts is now satisfactory.

3. The total export of American Cotton from the Northern Provinces, for 1937-38 amounted to 23,714 bales (of 400 lbs. of lint) as compared with 40,196 bales in the previous season. The reduction in output was due to the low price, which caused a reduction in amount of seed planted, and a large increase in the amount absorbed by the local weaving industry or exported to French Territory. Weather conditions were favourable.

4. The total export of Improved Ishan Cotton from the Southern Provinces amounted to 6,089 bales compared with 5,784 bales in the previous season.

5. Satisfactory progress has been made in the extension of Mixed Farming in the Northern Provinces (for explanation of this term please see Blue Book for 1934). Fewer new Mixed Farmers have been set up than in recent years due to the high price of Cattle and the low prices of export crops but the opportunity has been taken to consolidate on better farming by propaganda on improved management of stock and the use of Farm Yard Manure.

6. The making of small palm plantations by native farmers has continued despite the low prices for palm products. In the prevailing circumstances the extent of planting can be regarded as satisfactory although the nursery provision was more than adequate and could have met a much heavier demand. An investigation is being undertaken to ascertain the best methods for bringing about acceleration of the palm planting programme.

The following figures show the rate of progress in recent years :—

Total Owners :—1932, 200; 1933, 380; 1934, 770; 1935, 1,400; 1936, 2,500; 1937, 4,150; 1938, 5,530.

Total Acres :—1932, 700; 1933, 1,000; 1934, 1,500; 1935, 2,500; 1936, 4,500; 1937, 6,761; 1938, 9,203.

7. By September 1938, 816 palm oil presses were in use compared with 701 at the end of September 1937. Although the increased number is small in comparison with the previous year's increase, it can be considered to be satisfactory in a year of such low prices for palm oil.

8. The total export of Bennisseed in 1937-38 was 14,808 tons compared with 13,122 tons in the previous season. Improved agricultural practices continued to be introduced and demonstrated by the Agricultural Department working with the Native Administration.

9. There was a decrease in the amount of cured Ginger produced for export namely 378 tons in 1935-36, as compared with 342 tons in 1936-37 and 318 tons in 1937-38, but the internal trade has expanded to such an extent that 285 tons of Green Ginger were railed from Southern Zaria in 1937-38 in addition to large quantities taken north by donkey transport. The reduction in cured Ginger for export is due to difficulties which have arisen in connection with the method of preparation adopted by the growers which has led to a deficiency in the ash and content of ginger. A further reduction in export is expected until the propaganda campaign undertaken by the Agricultural Department and the Native Administration on an improved system of curing has had the desired effect.

10. During the fruit season 1937-38 the export of green skinned oranges dropped to only 189 cases. Orange juice export amounted to 122 gallons. Other shipments of citrus and citrus products included 88 cases of pineapples, 40 gallons pineapple juice, 5 cases grapefruits and 40 gallons lemon juice.

Both early and late crops of pineapples appear to have been unusually light owing to the very prolonged dry weather conditions which extended from November 1937 to February 1938 inclusive. The incidence of wastage arising from the dry conditions has been more acute than usual and the quantity of exportable fruit has been reduced in consequence.

Farmers have to some extent become disinterested in selling pineapples to shippers owing to the uncertainty of the condition of their fruit for export. In addition complaints have been made that they have not been paid in full by the African exporters to whom a certain amount of fruit was shipped on credit. Satisfactory results in the preparation and marketing of fruit juices give rise to the belief that a small export market may shortly be established.

11. Experimental work in the growing of rice in tidal mangrove swamps at Warri has been continued. Depreciation in yields has recently given rise to some apprehension and doubt as to the entire suitability of the Warri soils for this purpose. Further detailed experiments are being conducted. Some fifty farmers grew rice on these swamps in 1938.

12. Good results have been obtained this year with tobacco at Ogbomosho, Ipetu, and Oyo, in the Oyo Province. The total acreage planted increased from 283 in 1937 to 576 in 1938. In the Northern Provinces there was also an increase in the acreage of tobacco planted in 1937 and harvested in 1938, for sale to the British American Tobacco Company. Some 13,000 lbs. of virginia hybrid were produced. Experimental work continues on cultivation and the testing of imported strains from Mauritius and India.

13. The Locust Infestation continues, but no great damage has been done to crops.

14. Despite unfavourable economic conditions the Co-operative Movement has made appreciable advance in its main theatre of action, namely the cocoa-growing areas. No fresh staff appointments have been made, either by Government or Native Administrations. In the cocoa sale societies active membership in 1937-38, as compared with 1936-37, increased from 6,509 to 9,348, tonnage sold from 3,698 to 4,126, and surplus assets of societies from £3,723 to £4,156. Owing to the huge drop in cocoa prices total cash received for cocoa decreased from £158,240 to £71,131: this latter figure however is more than double the total for 1935-36, namely £33,987. Five societies were registered during the year under the Co-operative Societies Ordinance. In August 1938 supervision of societies in the Ife and Ilesha areas was taken over by the Co-operative from the Agricultural Staff. The rock bottom prices of palm products have resulted in a severe set-back for the embryo Palm Oil Pressing and Sale Societies in Benin and the Eastern Provinces. Out of fifteen societies formed only three or four have operated regularly. By the end of 1938 eight Thrift Societies were in operation, of which four consist of the Staff of Government Departments, one of Native Administration Staff, and one of Native Administration Teachers. Besides these there were eight simple Thrift Societies in farming villages in Benin Province. A start has also been made with the organisation of village Credit Societies.
